

Bibliography

The Stamford Mercury newspaper archives from 1695 onwards
The Beauty of Lincolnshire by John Britton (1807)
The Hundred of Aveland by John Moore (1809)
Morris & Co's Commercial Directory and Gazetteer of Lincolnshire (1863)
Jane Redmile of Dyke - a memorial sketch by Benjamin Wyles (1883)
Historic Bourne by Joseph J Davies (1909)
The Bourne Almanac published by John T Morris (1913)
Highways and Byways in Lincolnshire by William Franklin Rawsley (1914)
Bourne and People Associated with Bourne by John T Swift (1925)
The Story of the Abbey Church, Bourne, by C Pask Matthews (1946)
A Woman at Scotland Yard by Lilian Wyles (1952)
The Buildings of England - Lincolnshire by Nikolaus Pevsner and John Harris (1964)
A History of Bourne by J D Birkbeck (1970 & 1976)
Split Seconds - My Racing Years by Raymond Mays
Three Mediaeval Tales by Robert Manning translated by J F Haines and L A Hood
Joy for Living by Joy Richardson (née Cooke) (1996)
Hereward the Wake and the Barony of Bourne by David Roffe (2002)

Acknowledgments

Mrs Kathleen Cooke, step-daughter of Charles Sharpe VC
Mrs Pat Edmunds, great grand-daughter of Robert Mason Mills
Mrs Audrey Holmes, daughter-in-law of Mrs Ida Pick MBE
Professor Nils-Lennart Johannesson, Department of English, Stockholm University
Bert Johns, secretary, Bourne branch of the Royal Naval Association
W E (Ted) Kelby, chairman Bourne Urban District Council 1968-69
John Moody, former member Bourne Fire Brigade
Alec Revill, son of Councillor T W Revill, chairman Bourne Urban District Council (1949-50)
David Roffe, Research Fellow at the Department of History, Sheffield University
Richard Sellwood, son of Commander Harry Sellwood of HMS Beryl
Dr Geoffrey Smith, former partner of Dr John Galletly
Ron Stuble, grandson of Alfred Stuble
Christian Worth, great great grandson of Charles Worth
Lincolnshire Archives
Stamford and Bourne public libraries